About the Raglan Community Clay Shed

BECOME a clay shed member and join an active group of clay artists with a range of abilities. You must also join as a Raglan Community Arts Council financial member

Studio: The clay shed is located in the ground level of the new creative space building, behind the historic Old School building. Access is by the lane between the Old School and Raglan Kindergarten. We have basic equipment, electric and raku kilns, pottery wheels and workspace for hand-building projects.

Wednesday Clay Play for adults 5-7pm is for current financial members only. Concession cards are $30 for 10 sessions or $5 per session.

Refer to our Clay Shed handbook for kiln firing charges and details about how clay shed members can use the studio at other times (conditions apply). Also excludes time when other courses and workshops are running.

Become a member of the Raglan Community Arts Council Incorporated (RCAC – trading as Raglan Old School Arts Centre Inc). RCAC members may also join the Community Clay Shed
